

SPEECH BY THE CHIEF OF AIR STAFF
INTERNATIONAL FLIGHT SAFETY SEMINAR-2013
26 NOV 2013 (CLOSING DAY)

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim,

1. Honourable Chief Guest Air Vice Marshal A K Khondoker, Bir Uttom, pas (Retd), MP, Honourable Minister, Ministry of Planning, Former Chiefs of Air Staff, Bangladesh Air Force, Distinguished Guests and Delegates from home and aboard, Ladies and Gentlemen, Assalamu-Alaikum and a very Good Afternoon.

2. I stand here with a deep sense of gratefulness to the Honourable chief Guest for his kind presence to grace the closing session as the Chief Guest. I am also deeply grateful to the former Air Chiefs for their kind presence.

Distinguished Guests,

3. Owing to the rapid technological innovation and advancement, today's airmen, technicians and personnel related to aviation industry are exposed to an array of demanding challenges. Air Forces of the world and various aviation organizations are developing innovative concepts, methodologies, and mechanism to prevent aircraft accident.

4. As we conclude this seminar we need to remember that it is not the end of our interactions and experience sharing but surely it has been a valuable step in the process of building effective cooperation and under the flight safety umbrella.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

5. Let me also extend my heartiest felicitations to all the participants of civil and military organizations from home and aboard for their thoughts and interactions on issues related to Flight Safety.

Closing Speech by Chief of Air Staff
Air Marshal Muhammad Enamul Bari, ndu, psc

6. My sincere appreciations to the distinguished participants from 15 different countries. I also request you to convey our best wishes to your respective governments and Air Forces.

7. My profound thanks to the distinguished participants and observers from the Inter Service Organizations, Sister Services, Civil Aviation, Private Airlines and other government, semi-government and private organizations.

8. I thank the Director of Flight Safety, BAF and Chairman, Civil Aviation Authority of Bangladesh and their team for planning, organizing, conducting and facilitating administrative support for the successful completion of the seminar.

9. I, once again convey my heartfelt gratitude to the honourable Chief Guest for sparing his valuable time for being with us. I wish every one of you good luck and safe flights for the years ahead.

Thank you.